

KEDREN ACUTE PSYCHIATRIC HOSPITAL AND COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH CENTER

Infection Control Practitioner

Kedren Acute Psychiatric Hospital has an opening for Infection Control Practitioner under the direction of Continues Quality Improvement Department (CQI). IPS is responsible for implementing infection control plan formulating daily infection prevention surveillance that includes reviewing patient lab results, microbiological reports, inspection, and observation of patient care areas, and nursing station. He or she responsible is identifying any reportable, nosocomial, and transmittable disease, falls within the Kedren's infection prevention policies guideline, NHSN/CDC, and other regulatory agency. He or she must able to upkeep with all new epidemic outbreak and prevention program. Advocate promoting disease prevention program through entire hospital. Ability communicating and consulting clinical and nonclinical staff within the IP program inline to epidemiology evidence-based best practices.

Qualifications:

- Minimum of two years Hospital Infection Prevention experience (Preferably Acute Psychiatric Hospital)
- Bachelor degree in Health related discipline, public health or related master degree. If nursing must have BSN, California RN license in good standing.
- He or She must have active Infection Prevention Certification (CIC)
- Must have good understanding of excel data management system and reporting (Statistical tool would be plus)